To be eligible to apply for a GDMT 2021 PERFORMANCE AWARD you must be over 18 years of age, be a self-employed, professional Scottish traditional musician with limited savings and requiring some financial assistance at this time in our history.

If your application is successful the GDMT would post your performance on our YouTube channel on our website gallery and showcase your performance to our many supporters. We would ask you to then share our GDMT links to your links so we help each other. We would also make you an award of £300. All we ask you to do is fill in this application form, then video a 5-minute performance of exciting and cheery music, including one of Gordon Duncan's compositions, then email the form and video (via WeTransfer or another file transfer service please) to us. Our musical sub-committee will view them and award suitable performances. Easy!

Name of Applicant:

Postal Address:

Postcode:

Email address:

What instrument(s) will you be playing in this PERFORMANCE? (P.S. If voice, you do not need to sing a Gordon tune! It would be very interesting though!)

Please give us a brief CV of your musical experience and expertise:

What bands or groups have you, or do you play in?

CATEGORY OF APPLICATION for this award is: 'To encourage the attainment of high standards of performance and innovative composition in relation to all forms of traditional music and in particular the music of the Great Highland Bagpipe.'

Now please detail here the names and composers of the tunes in your performance, including your preferred Gordon Duncan tune:

I agree to my video being used on our YouTube channel and the GDMT website. When my performance is showcased by the GDMT then I will share the GDMT links to my social networks.
